READING	LEVEL DESCRIPTION	SUGGESTIONS
6 INTERMEDIATE HIGH 	At this level, learners are able to: • read and comprehend longer texts such as short stories and descriptive texts, and understand the main ideas and most details. • guess the meaning of many new words from context in unfamiliar texts.	Suggestions to 'Power Up' to the next level: • practice reading a variety of extended texts such as detailed narratives, descriptions, and historical accounts that include opinions. • identify applications that focus on word games and puzzles and use these on a regular basis to build vocabulary. • *For Latin: focus on reading more complicated inscriptions and short stories and expand your reading into unfamiliar topics.
WRITING	LEVEL DESCRIPTION	SUGGESTIONS
6 INTERMEDIATE HIGH 	At this level, learners are able to: • write clear, detailed, extended texts on a wide range of subjects related to personal interests. • create texts that show good control of the language, using a variety of transition and linking words and strategies. • show increased grammatical accuracy and vocabulary depth and breadth in texts.	Suggestions to 'Power Up' to the next level: • focus on increasing the amount of language that you produce, using a variety of complex sentences with both added details and less common vocabulary. • focus on creating cohesion and natural flow in your writing, with clear and smooth flow from beginning, middle and end.
LISTENING	LEVEL DESCRIPTION	SUGGESTIONS
6 INTERMEDIATE HIGH 	At this level, learners are able to: • understand extended speech, conversations and dialogues presented in a series of connected sentences. • follow more complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. • understand most TV news and current affairs programs and other similar media, which may be unfamiliar.	Suggestions to 'Power Up' to the next level: • practice listening to longer, more detailed audio passages such as news reports, audio books and reviews with critical opinions. • use focused listening to identify personal opinion and critical analysis of stories and situations.
SPEAKING	LEVEL DESCRIPTION	SUGGESTIONS
5 INTERMEDIATE MID 	At this level, learners are able to: • create language that shows groupings of ideas, which are loosely connected using some transition words. • describe experiences and events in everyday life at home, school and in the community. • show increased fluency and control of some complex language, with accurate pronunciation.	Suggestions to 'Power Up' to the next level: • focus on linking thoughts and ideas together using more complex language and linking strategies. • focus on using less common vocabulary. • identify a speaking partner who is able to give you feedback and that you can speak with on a daily basis.
